

Message Summary

When Jesus becomes the CEO of our lives, He doesn't just change our behavior—He reshapes our values. Jesus made it clear that above all else, His followers are marked by love: love for God and love for others. This value fuels every other Christian virtue and proves who truly leads our lives. Loving others isn't optional—it's evidence that Jesus is in charge.

Key Scriptures

Matthew 22:37–39 (NIV)

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind... Love your neighbor as yourself.”

1 Corinthians 6:20 (NIV)

“You were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your bodies.”

Matthew 10:39 (NIV)

“Whoever finds their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life for my sake will find it.”

Start Talking

Find a conversation starter for your group.

- When you hear – “healthy culture”, what's first team, organization, company or family that comes to mind?
- Watch this week's Sermon Refresh: Here (Available Monday's)

Start Thinking

Ask a question to get your group thinking.

- Please read the Key Scriptures on the left.
- What do these passages reveal about God's character—and why love is the primary value for people who live under His leadership?

Start Sharing

Choose a question(s) to create openness.

- When you hear “Love God and love others,” which part feels more natural to you and which feels harder?
- Why do you think loving others can feel risky even when we know it's right? What's at stake?
- What tends to shape your reactions to people more—your experiences, your emotions, or Jesus' example?
- What is one small way choosing love could show up in your normal routine this week?

Start Praying

Jesus, thank You for loving us first and giving Your life for us. Help us love You with all that we are and love others the way You love us. Change our hearts, our priorities, and our responses so our lives clearly reflect You. Amen.

Start Doing

This week, identify one specific person who needs to experience love through you.

- Pray for them daily.
- Take one intentional action to serve, encourage, forgive, or show kindness—without expecting anything in return.
