Legacy that Lasts

Talk It Over

Message Summary ●●●

A life well-lived isn't about titles or wins, but leaving a legacy of faith, family, and intentional impact. The Drew family reminds us that true success is staying faithful to what matters most.

Key Scriptures ●●●

"Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus."

Philippians 3:12-14

"Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it."

Proverbs 22:6

"But if serving the LORD seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

Joshua 24:15

"Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."

Galatians 6:9

Start Talking ●●●

Find a conversation starter for your group.

- What's one thing your parents or a mentor taught you that has shaped your life? Or if you're a parent, what's one value you hope your kids carry with them as they grow up?)
- There will not be a Sermon Refresh this week.

Start Thinking ●●●

Ask a question to get your group thinking.

- Please read the Key Scriptures on the left.
- Which verse stood out to you, and how does it validate or challenge the legacy you're building?

Start Sharing ●●●

Choose a question(s) to create openness.

- The Drew family shared how faith kept them grounded through a busy life. How do you keep Jesus at the center when life feels chaotic?
- It's clear the Drew parents were intentional about shaping character more than chasing achievements. How can we lead our homes or influence others with the long-term goal of spiritual legacy?
- The Drew children reflected on how their dad's presence, prayers, and priorities left a lasting mark. What kind of legacy do you want your family, friends, and those in your circle of influence to say about you?

Start Praying ●●●

Heavenly Father, thank You for families that model faithfulness over fame. Help us build our lives on what matters most, loving You, loving others, and passing on the legacy of Jesus. Whether we are just starting or nearing the finish line, may we run our race with purpose. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Start Doing ●●●

Think of one relationship where you can leave a positive, spiritual impact this week. It could be a family member, coworker, or neighbor. Reach out, share encouragement, pray together, or simply be present.
