

Who God Is, Is What You Need

Our Omniscient God Sees You

Talk It Over

Message Summary ...

God sees all of you—your flaws and potential—and still loves you fully. Like the woman at the well, your past doesn't disqualify you; it prepares you. Stop hiding and embrace God's love to fulfill your calling and impact the world for Christ.

Key Scriptures ...

Jesus and the Samaritan Woman

John 4:1-42 (NLT)

Start Talking ...

Find a conversation starter for your group.

- What's one thing you used to hide as a kid, whether it was a secret stash of candy or a funny habit, and how did you try to keep it hidden?
- Watch this week's Sermon Refresh: Here (Available Mondays)

Start Thinking ...

Ask a question to get your group thinking.

- Please read the Key Scriptures on the left.
- How does the story of the woman at the well show us that God sees and loves us despite our past?

Start Sharing ...

Choose a question(s) to create openness.

- Can you share a time when you felt truly seen and accepted by someone, even with your flaws?
- What steps can we take to stop hiding our true selves and embrace God's love and purpose for us?
- What has your past uniquely prepared you to do in serving the Kingdom of God? What specific step can you take this week to start using your past to serve others?

Start Praying ...

Heavenly Father, thank You for seeing us fully and loving us completely. Help us embrace our past as preparation for Your purpose. Guide us to step out of hiding and use our stories to impact others for Your Kingdom. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Start Doing ...

God calls each of us to serve His Kingdom, using our past to help shape someone else's future. If you're unsure where to start, click the link below to begin a serving application with CCV. Choose area(s) you feel drawn to, and a conversation with a Pastor will guide you to your best fit. Don't worry about finding the perfect match right away; the journey will reveal your path.
